ENTERPRISE

Meetings Closed

The series of meetings held in the local M. E. Church were brought to a close with the meeting of Sunday night when the Rev. W. J. Eagle of Clarksburg delivered a splendid sermon. Each night during the meetings, a new speaker was presented, and the results of the series were of much interest. The Rev. George Stratton, regular pastor of the church, is very enthusiastic over the interest shown in the meetings.

Surprise Party

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fortney entertained a party of young people at their home in West Enterprise last Friday evening, the event being in honor of the fourteenth birthday of their young son, Garnet Fortney. The affair was a most successful one as a surprise, as the young man was wholly unsuspecting until the merry crowd showered him with a number of gifts. Music and games were enjoyed during the evening, and refreshments were served to the guests before they left for their homes. Those present were: Gladys McIntire, Edith Hopson, Helen Tetrick, Louise Tetrick, Hazel Mayhall, Olive Hopson, Leon Spricker, Virginia Nutter, Alita Nutter, Francis Tetrick, Merritt McIntire, Ruth Hopson, Doris Martin, Margaret Martin, Grace Tetrick, Gayle Tetrick, Elizabeth Fortney, James Tetrick, Raymond Nutter, Lee Bice, Evan Bice, Phillip Griffin, James Stewart, Raymond Fortney, Bernard Bice, Harold McIntire, Harry Wright, Mrs. Clarence Fortney, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Tetrick, Howard Martin and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fortney.

Sunday School Picnic

On account of unfavorable weather conditions, the members of the M. E. Sunday School did not go to Viopra for their picnic as planned. The meeting was held at the church, and the program, which was made up mostly of musical numbers, was much enjoyed. The younger folk enjoyed themselves with games on the church lawn, and a bounteous supper was served inside the church. There were about seventy five persons present.

Hospital Patient

Miss Francis Higginbotham returned yesterday from Cook Hospital at Fairmont, where she had been a patient for the past few days and where she underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils. At this time she is somewhat improved although the operation was considered a very severe one.

Son Born

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith are announcing the arrival of a little son, who was born several days ago. The child has been named Jack Smith.

Creighton Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Carl Creighton, who died Monday morning, were held at the family home at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Creighton had been ill for the past several months with tuberculosis. She is survived by her husband and three small children.

The Rev. Carl Bailey

The Rev. Carl Bailey, pastor of the Free M. E. Church, had charge of the funeral services, and burial was made in the Odd Fellows Cemetery.

Corn Roast

Miss Catherine Vance was hostess to a number of her friends at a weiner roast Tuesday evening. The guests were taken to Saltwell in a truck.

The presenters were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bice, Mrs. Clarence Crislip and children, Mr. and Mrs. Arnett Vance, the Misses Carrie Wharton, Catherine Vance, Hilda Crislip, Phillip and Lee Bice and Master Homer Vance.

Bice Reunion

The Bice family reunion held at Viopra last Sunday was attended by more than two hundred persons, many coming from distant points in Harrison and adjoining counties. The affair was purely informal, aside from an election of officers. There was no program, and the different members and connections of the family visited around among each other and renewed acquaintances of long ago. It was decided to make the gathering an annual affair, and the clan will meet at Viopra Grove at the same time next year. There was plenty of dinner on the grounds last Sunday, and the noon meal was one of the pleasant features of the occasion.

Motorists Home

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Harrison returned home Sunday evening from a motor trip through the valleys of Virginia and other eastern cities. The following will be the services in the M. E. Church South for next Sunday: Sunday school at 10 a. m., Dr. R. B. Nutter, superintendent; Epworth League at 7 p. m., Miss Irene Lucas, leader; public worship and preaching service at 8 p. m. with sermon by the regular pastor, the Rev. T. J. Hopson.

MURIEL MCCORMICK MAY ENTER MOVIES

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—William L. Sperrill, who said he represented New York interests announced today he had tendered to Miss Muriel McCormick offers to appear on the stage and screen as Navanna Mi Cor. Miss McCormick is the daughter of Harold McCormick, head of the executive committee of the International Harvester Co., who recently married Ganna Walska, Polish grand opera star, after his wife, the daughter, John D. Rockefeller, had obtained a divorce on the grounds of desertion. Under the terms of the proposed contract, it was rumored that Miss McCormick would receive more than $1,000,000.

The stage name of Navanna Mi Cor was suggested by a seerss. Miss McCormick had visited recently in the East while she was the guest of Mrs. Fifi Stillman. Miss McCormick has often expressed her desire to achieve fame wholly upon her own merits, with no assistance from the millions she will inherit. Mr. Rockefeller, it was said, had given his consent to the stage career if she left the care of her success.

The type of motion picture vehicle which is being considered for Miss McCormick's first picture, Mr. Sperrill said, dealt with college life, "frenzied finance, and a girl who faced poverty for love." Her share of the proceeds of the picture, he said, she was considering devoting to charity.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION
State of West Virginia:
At Rules held in the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court of Marion County, West Virginia, on Monday, the 7th day of August, 1932, the following order was entered: Fairmont Wall Plaster Company, a corporation, plaintiff against A. T. Heck, L. B. Glasscock, Emanuel Beall, Marbury Neptune and Dent Brand, trustees of Bethesda Baptist Church of Barracksville, West Virginia, and Harry Kendall, Defendants—Chancery.

OBJECT OF SUIT
The object of this suit is to obtain a decree against the defendant Harry Kendall, of Four Hundred Thirty-five and 34-100 Dollars ($435.54), with interest thereon from the 10th day of January, 1932, and to endorse a mechanic's lien in the aforesaid amount held by plaintiff against a certain parcel or tract of real estate, and the improvements thereon, situate in Fairmont District, in Marion County, West Virginia, which was conveyed to the said defendants, A. T. Heck, L. B. Glasscock, Emanuel Beall, Marbury Neptune, and Dent Brand, trustees of Bethesda Baptist Church of Barracksville, West Virginia, by Charles Lee, Sr., by deed dated April 3, 1920, and of record in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of Marion County, West Virginia, in Deed Book Number 239, at Page 267; and for general relief.

And it appearing by affidavit filed in this cause that the plaintiff has used due diligence to ascertain in what County the said defendant Harry Kendall, is, without effect, it is ordered that the said defendant, Harry Kendall do appear within one month after the date of the first publication of this order, in the Clerk's office of our said Circuit Court, at Rules to be holden thereafter and do what is necessary to protect his interests.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published and posted, as required, by law. Given under my hand this 10th day of August, 1932.

L. A. CATHER, Clerk.
Trevoy Nutter,
Counsel for Plaintiff.

This order is published for the first time August 11th, 1932, and to be published once a week for four successive weeks.
L. A. CATHER, Clerk.
Aug. 11-18-25—Sept. 1.
